2007 Pinot Grigio, California

The Appellation

California has several different growing regions within its borders. Those moderated by the cool coastal climate develop wines of intensity and depth not found in the inland regions. It is from these cool regions along the North Coast and Central Coast that we select fruit for our wines, capturing the robust aromas and rich supple flavors

Technical Stats

Winemaker's Notes

Translucently golden in color, this wine resonates with layers of floral honeysuckle, perfumed pears, and crisp apples. Refreshing acidity and minuscule amounts of residual sugar have created the perfect balance of a mouthwatering, food friendly wine. Serve chilled, please don't forget to enjoy!
